
Memories Macclesfield Editors True North Books

*february 2015 60p - prestbury - views expressed in this magazine are not necessarily those of the editors, the clergy, ... many of you will have met canon david, and share enduring memories of his licensing service by bishop marty. he contributed a chapter to the recently published book 'being a curate', which we reviewed in october and which has been read with genuine interest by many parishioners. you will find his ... printed for from congleton chronicle - 5 january 2012 at ... - as editors and photographers from congleton 'chronicle' who have worked so hard, but our thoughts and prayers are with madelena's family and friends." she added: "I had the honour meeting her daughter-in-law and having time to speak to her. whilst i never caught her name, the time we had together as i listened to her memories will stay with me for a long, long time. her mother was truly amazing ... £!t te